My dear Sis

Do not send anything while I am away from home, lest it be mislaid or maltreated. Neither is likely, but do not run the risk. My servants are generally careful, but I will answer for no servants.

About Hubbert, I only judged from the typography, as I have no note as to the date of the incident.

The other tracts you mention are all more or less curious; but of rather too late a date for my use. That which I know best & most interests me, is N^o 8. Of course N^o 6 is of historical importance.

The coat of arms on the cover probably shews that the book was once in the library of Charles I.

I shall be absent from home for about a month, & at any time I shall be glad to hear from you.

Yours very faithfully & much obliged

J. Payne Collier
